Join Emmy-nominated comedy writer Martha Bolton on an absolutely hilarious journey through the Bible in this laughter-packed book. Her zany wit will brighten your day and leave you chuckling with joy as you rediscover the Bible through the eyes of humor. Comments that might have been overheard during Egypt's plague of flies: "You left the screen door open again, didn't you, Abigail?" "Waiter, I think there are 4,000 flies in my soup." "Where are all those frogs now that we need them, huh?" "Just how many pounds do these 'No-Pest Strips' hold anyway?" "All I know, Omar, is you can't have a beauty contest when the contestants are drawing this many flies."
