Scout and Chisolm Solve a MysteryBy txblaizeI love this children's book I won on goodreads. This is the first book I have read in this series and it was delightful. This book is part of a wonderful mystery series set in Charleston. The main characters are Scout, a fluffy black and white Springer Spaniel and his wandering fat possum friend, Chisolm. All the dogs talk about their homes and their people, the people they live with and protect. The dogs all used "mumma" for the lady of the house, and I thought that was particularly endearing and so true. Scout solves mysteries with the help of his dog and animal friends. This book is appropriate for advanced 6 year-olds or 8 years and up. The illustrations are as much fun as reading the book.

An eerie tale of a ghost dog bully... Scout and his friends are back in their second adventure in "The Springer Spaniel Mysteries" series! In "A Ghostly Tail", Hamish is an Irish Wolfhound that returns to haunt Montagu Street and frame Scout for bad things he hasn't done. But Hamish is a sad ghost dog bully; he misses his family who moved away without him. Scout needs to find a way to return Hamish to his mumma's purse during a King Street shopping trek so that Harleston Village will be safe. Along the way, Scout gets help from his own ghosts, Pudge the Boykin Spaniel, Chisolm the Possum and several other friends.
