I loved reading them as a child. I was very happy to find them on for such a low price. I love the collection of poems in A Light in the Attic. I was very happy to find other Shel Silverstein books for a low price on this website as well. I am very glad I bought these books. Shel Silverstein wrote many fantastic poems and I can not wait to share them with my future children.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Still love the imagination.By Big IVClassic.From his humble writing beginnings in Playboy to his beloved children's poems Silverstein is a classic. Silverstein inspires imagination and whimsy. Decades later, I find myself reading these again with my daughter and I still love them. Now I can love them with a new generation.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Shel Silverstein... Still as wonderful and amazing now as it was then. You can't go wrong with any of his books.

From New York Times bestselling author Shel Silverstein, the creator of the beloved poetry collections Where the Sidewalk Ends, Falling Up, and Every Thing On It, comes an imaginative book of poems and drawings a favorite of Shel Silverstein fans young and old. A Light in the Attic delights with remarkable characters and hilariously profound poems in a collection readers will return to again and again. Here in the attic you will find Backward Bill, Sour Face Ann, the Meehoo with an Exactlywatt, and the Polar Bear in the Frigidaire. You will talk with Broiled Face, and find out what happens when Somebody steals your knees, you get caught by the Quick-Digesting Gink, a Mountain snores, and They Put a Brassiere on the Camel. Come on up to the attic of Shel Silverstein and let the light bring you home. And don't miss Runny Babbit Returns, the new book from Shel Silverstein!
