Alaska Sportsman Cownoil : Alaskan Camp Cook before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Alaskan Camp Cook:

So, your neighbor brings over a caribou he just bagged and how do you cook it, barbecue, stroganoff, casserole, hot dish, slumgullion, meatloaf, caribou burgers, spaghetti and caribou balls? You won't be the laughing stock of the campfire if you have this cookbook consisting of thirteen chapters, eighty-eight pages of original recipes that originally appeared in Alaska Magazine. Sportsman, big game hunters, and their wives, mostly the wives share their outdoor family tips and easy to make meals.
