Great read for folks of all ages By LisFirst saw this book in an art museum with my friend a year ago, and finally decided to buy it for my boyfriend-it's full of great stories and laughs, my mom read it too and couldn't put it down! Definitely an entertaining book which both men and women can find amusing

What started as a question of how many men out there are stingy and thrift-minded became a project, a blog, and finally the book. Then stories poured in from across the country, namely from women who had cheap-bastard husbands of their own. New lessons were learned in penny-pinching: Why pay retail? Buy in bulk! Clip coupons! for a rainy day. Husbands taking it too far: bartering in restaurants, recycling popcorn at movie theaters, and committing mail fraud in order to save a penny. Families' lives were being turned upside down by these penny-pinching men. Sound familiar? Laugh out loud with this compendium of short stories that just might save you a penny or two.
