Chicago Politics in a NutshellBy Patricia CrowleyIt's been years since I've lived in Chicago, but I've kept track of the politics via the Sun-Times Web site.I've followed Jack Higgins' cartoons, so I bought this book in order to have a collection of his best. My sentimental favorite is the one about Siskel and Ebert, but I enjoyed his recent ones about Obama as well - how fortunate to be at the center of such an important election, and be able to comment on it!I highly recommend this book! It was easy to read through in one sitting, and I'm sure you'll enjoy it as well.

An institution at the Chicago Sun-Times, his home paper for more than twenty-five years, Pulitzer Prize-winning editorial cartoonist Jack Higgins gathers for the first time in My Kind of 'Toon (Chicago Is) approximately 250 editorial and political cartoons. Over the years, he has filed syndicated cartoons from the Soviet Union, Hungary, Ireland, and Cuba. From his front-row seat he has lately focused on the highs and lows of the Chicago and Illinois politics that produced both the first African American president and a string of corrupt gubernatorial administrations.
