J. Naughton, MoDMan, P. Cummin : National Lampoon Magazine Rack before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised National Lampoon Magazine Rack:

Five Stars By James L Roberts As advertised! 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. not for me By AD This was just a little too silly for me. I was looking for something different. I was very disappointed with it. 4 of 10 people found the following review helpful. Not the real NatLamp By Edson Arantes Although much of the content is from the classic National Lampoon, the edition is not as clever as the old mag used to be. All the time the editor says things like "this is not a real magazine" or "this is not a real quotation". Something is missed. Maybe the sense of humour itself.

In one of humor's most familiar forms, the magazine parody is a staple of the National Lampoon. Rich in visual jokes and pop culture reference it's an easy and fun read. Culled from years of material the Magazine Rack includes great classics like the MAD magazine parody, Pethouse, and Playdead and new material like Consumed Reports Weapons of Mass Destruction, Trophy Wife Magazine, and the Hollywood Retorter all perfectly constructed by our award winning team.

"The second most important paper product in any bathroom is toilet paper. The first is a good magazine." - William Randolph Hearst." About the Author The experience of the staff and various contributors to National Lampoon spans more than 36 years of publishing funny material for the web, print, and TV.
