You can look at it over and over again because there is always something you missed.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Bible for the Boomers!By dahens1This is the epitome of 1960's High School Yearbooks! Change the name of the school and it's probably YOUR school!Pros: Hits the nail on the head.Cons: They only made one version!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. EntertainmentBy PollywogI had a copy of this book a long time ago and mistakenly lent it to someone. I bought it again.

Welcome back, graduates of the 1964 class of C. Estes Kefauver High School in Dacron, Ohio! They're all back in glorious black and white with color Magic Marker-Chuck U. Farley, Maria Teresa Spermatozoa, Purdy "Psycho" Lee Spackle, Faun Laurel Rosenberg, and, of course, Dacron's most famous son, Larry Kroger. Learn everything there is to know about Kroger's past before he became the pop-culture legend Pinto (Tom Hulce), the virgin fraternity pledge in National Lampoon's Animal House. With a hilarious "Where are they now?" addendum and a brilliantly funny new introduction by P. J. O'Rourke, the 39th Reunion Edition is sure to be the talk of the baby boomers who grew up with National Lampoon and of the new generation of comedy fans spawned by the success of The Onion.
