Garrison Keillor : New and Not Bad Pretty Good Jokes (Prairie Home Companion) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised New and Not Bad Pretty Good Jokes (Prairie Home Companion):

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Skip it By Susan Many jokes are based on current political events from a few years ago, which are now out of date. Some repetition of the same jokes. Sexual content detracts from the better material. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Any Prairie Home Companion lover will know all about the ... By Rapunzel Smith Any Prairie Home Companion lover will know all about the "Joke Show" broadcast yearly. This is a non-stop belly laugh from beginning to end. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. If you like Lake Wobegon stories By J. Bradford Skip this one. Nothing but plays on words jokes and knock knock jokes. Kind of lame.

What better way to spend an hour than with some audience-tested and certified Not Bad jokes? Join guest Paula Poundstone, Garrison Keillor, and the cast of A Prairie Home Companion as they share more puns, one-liners, and light bulb jokes than you can shake a rubber chicken at. You get bar jokes, political jokes, Ole and Lena jokes, grade school jokes, and even some email jokes. Originally the bonus CD in the Plenty of Pretty Good Jokes compendium, this collection from Joke Shows 7-8 is now available separately.

About the AuthorAs the host of A Prairie Home Companion for over forty years, Garrison Keillor has captivated millions of listeners with his News from Lake Wobegon monologues. He has been honored with Grammy, ACE, and George Foster Peabody awards, the National Humanities Medal, and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters. Paula Poundstone has been a stand-up comic for over thirty years. She is a regular panelist on NPR's #1 show, Wait Wait . . . Don't Tell Me!, and she recently voiced the character of Forgetter Paula in the Disney/Pixar Oscar-winning film Inside Out. Her successes include HBO and Bravo specials, and an American Comedy Award for Best Female Stand-Up. From AudioFileWhat could be more fun than an hour of Garrison Keillor and his friends from "A Prairie Home Companion" telling jokes? The latest book of "new and not bad" jokes is a scream, even if a couple of them are skewed in the telling and a few others are told twice. Keillor's delivery is flawless, as is that of Fred Newman, Tim Keith, and Tim Russell, who combine to make the jokes more like conversation than monologues. Comic Paula Poundstone and PHC's Sue Scott deliver more comedy with a feminine touch that is almost perfect. Blonde jokes, bar jokes, political jokes, and more--they're all delivered with verve by the Prairie crew. M.S. © AudioFile 2006, Portland, Maine-- Copyright © AudioFile, Portland, Maine
