By Geek Family I was mystery reader for my kid's class and the kids absolutely loved this book. I donated to the classroom library because they all wanted to read it. I am actually going to buy another one for my other kids class.

By Tabitha This is another cute book that contains lots of giggles about school. My favorite poem is Norman Norton's Nostrils. I used this poem to introduce a health/science unit on body parts. Students participate in a fluency exercise. the book contains lots of gross and giggly poems that will motivate primary age students. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. was expecting more

By Sandy Barker This was something that was recommended to me. It's not really something I have been able to use in my high school classroom.

No More Homework! No More Tests! includes the funniest poems about school ever collected in one book. These hilarious poems were written by a number of poets, including Shel Silverstein, Jack Prelutsky, David L. Harrison, Colin McNaughton, Carol Diggory Shields, Kalli Dakos, and Bruce Lansky. Sillier than a teacher with hiccups, funnier than toilet paper stuck to the bottom of the principals shoe, it is certain to have readers laughing by the first page. This book puts the cool back in school and makes students WANT to write and read poetry.

Even the most reluctant readers will get caught up in the mix of fun this collection is guaranteed to elicit laughs.
