Dr. MaryHelen Ward : Nun Fun before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nun Fun:

ForrestAs a fellow member of the Party of '62, I can attest to Mary Helen's memory! Our Party remains a close-knit, talented and fun-loving group. I related to many tales in Mary Helen's story and laughed aloud at many of them. Cape May Point remains a favorite spot for us to this day; we celebrated our 50th there a while back. Ask her about "In Open" and the Men's Room/loss of bread, next time you see her! We were a trial to the nuns who were in charge of teaching us the ropes but I am sure-as is Mary Helen-that they laughed themselves silly at our antics.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fresh As Paint!By CustomerA look at convent life and formation in the early 1960's. A must for folks who were taught by the Sisters of Saint Joseph, Philadelphia PA.Funny stories by Mary Helen Ward when she was a Sister of Saint Joseph in Philadelphia. I appreciate the sisters who taught me at Saint Bridget's School after reading this book. The stories are funny and thought provoking in a turbulent time period with Vatican Council II. Great pictures!Thank you Mary Helen for sharing your journey!Brother Dennis Snyder, T.O.R.Saint Francis University0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun bookBy PeachmountainThis was a gift, but the person I gave it to said it was very good. She knew the author and was involved in some of the antics.

There are some professions that are a bit mysterious. We can define what they do but have no idea of the inner workings of what takes place. Nun Fun is my memories of my life lived for eleven years as a Sister of St. Joseph. These are the stories that I experienced over that time and I feel you're in for a few surprises and lots of chuckles. Enjoy!
