Jeffrey Stone, Maureen Kelly : Nuns Having Fun 2013 Wall Calendar before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nuns Having Fun 2013 Wall Calendar:

This calendar always strikes up conversations whenever people see it in my house. To spice up your calendar and make it custom, do like I do and every month all the family members and friends get to "Name that Nun!" Sister Agnes is driving the lawnmower on the front cover for instance. A whole 30 minutes of entertainment every month AND it tells you what day it is! What more could you ask for? A 2014 version perhaps?0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun CalendarBy JoThis is a genuinely fun calendar. We all smile every time we check the calendar and notice the Nuns doing something Nuns usually don't! The quality is good and I think the Black and White photos of the Nuns are exactly what it should be.....don't really even realize the photos are in Black and White!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Yankee Swap GiftBy SlickmoveI got this as an add-on to my yankee swap gift. Everyone got a good laugh which make it was worth the buy. I recommend this as a gag gift as I can't really see anyone wanting this calendar on their refrigerator.

Hallelujah, the nuns are back! The hit calendar proclaimed "the funniest calendar of the year" by Gene Shalit and "habit-forming" by Maxim, Nuns Having Fun pays homage to the joys of good old-fashioned play. Here are twelve months of retro black-and-white photographs depicting a sweet and unexpected side of convent life: one filled with carefree laughter, spontaneity, and fun. Nuns playing foosball. Nuns playing Wii. Nuns at a barbecue; nuns playing baseball. Nuns running and skating and skipping through water. Nuns posing for snaps. Irreverent captions by Maureen Kelly and Jeffrey Stone, co-authors of the New York Times bestseller Growing Up Catholic, add to the pleasure.
