By mschoir01 The media (and far too many former miscreant students) portray these women as stern taskmasters or worse. This is an unfair stereotype that should be balanced by the group that I consider to be the first real liberated women in western civilization. This calendar uses humor and candid photography to show the lighter side of a vocation little understood by the larger world. Plus, some of my very good friends are in it! And no, I am not a nun or a religious sister, I simply have gotten to know some of these dedicated souls outside of the job they do, which is to pray and to work for the good of all creation. 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Glory, glory, hallelujah—the nuns are back for a 11th fun-filled year! Proclaimed “habit-forming” by Maxim and “the funniest calendar of the year” by Gene Shalit, Nuns Having Fun is a lighthearted tribute to a more innocent time. These retro photographs—now in full color—portray nuns letting loose with sweet spontaneity, accompanied by witty captions from Maureen Kelly and Jeffrey Stone, co-authors of the New York Times bestseller Growing Up Catholic.
