S. Omar Barker : Ol' S.O.B. Sez: Cowboy Limericks before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Ol' S.O.B. Sez: Cowboy Limericks:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. IT'S FUN, BUT...By A CustomerIf you're looking for limericks, don't buy this book. It is a collection of clever little poems and ditties... all definately clean, but they are not limericks by any stretch of the imagination. Just not much for your money... Take 15 minutes and read someone else's copy!

from New Mexico.

From the Back Cover 'A ranch-farmer down in Las Cruces / Instead of fat cattle, raised geese / His cowboys all quite / 'Cause they just couldn't git / The geese to stay in their nooses.' This is just one of the 53 clever and humorous limericks included in this volume written by S. Omar Barker, famous western writer from New Mexico. Mr. Barker completed more than 1,200 articles, 1,500 short stories, and 2,000 poems, as well as numerous books of various genres during his 91 years. Still popular today, his verses are printed on the widely available Leanin' Tree line of greeting cards. Grosshauser's skillful pen ink drawings capture Mr. Barker's quirky humor.
