Peter Jerram, Peter Anderson : Old Dogs New Tricks: More Tales from Two Kiwi Country Vets before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Old Dogs New Tricks: More Tales from Two Kiwi Country Vets:

More cock and bull stories from New Zealand's favourite country Vets Peter Anderson (aka the Flying Vet) and Peter Jerram (aka the Sailing Vet) are back with more lough-out-loud and entertaining yarns about the animals, and owners, they've come across during their more than thirty years in practice together. Join them as they cut straight through the cow-shit, sharing the ups and downs of a rural vet's life - a must for all animal lovers in New Zealand.
