classic American expressions. The reader will delight in recognizing familiar sayings and will no doubt want to contribute their own. The poems are equally clever. Ordinary Sayings and Southern Cliché is based on unique dialect and normal sayings by Southerners. To us the words are ordinary. To others they're unusual, funny, outrageous, odd, or just downright hilarious. Wash your dirty carcass, loose lips sink ships, toot your own horn, stinkin' thinkin' and don't get your panties in a wad are just a few of the phrases and unusual sayings you'll find once the book is opened. Southern expressions, when applied, can be an amusing highway of words. But remember. You'll never know where the road's gonna wind up 'til you get to the very end. And use caution. You may recognize yourself while reading. ORDINARY SAYINGS and SOUTHERN CLICHÉ is unique, matchless, and priceless—a fun form of entertainment.
