The poems are easy to understand and makes the bible come alive!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Thought provoking, inspiring and soul searching. This book ...By CustomerThought provoking, inspiring and soul searching. This book soothes hurt and pain as well a gives its reader something to reflect on. It evokes the thought process of who truly benefits from forgiveness. The person who has been hurt or the person perceived to have been the perpetrator. The one who is hurt can use these poems to soul search as well as to soothe hurt.This book is a must read for as it taps into religious thinking but applies to everyone as I am sure we all have had some pain to overcome.

Poetry is combined with biblical verses to tell the story about, "The Girl Who Lived Between the Hills and the Town," who receives healing from, "Religious Compulsive Behavior" (RCB) and broken relationships. Her healing began when, "The Most Gracious Gazillionaire" introduced Himself to her in His "Mirror" and began explaining her identity in Christ Jesus. He uses the poems, "Be like Joseph," "David," and, "Joseph and David: Purpose," to express His limitless grace and mercy, and then encourages her to, "Think Wealthily," "Speak Life" and take, "Time to Meditate" on His gracious Word.
