Sharon Lund, and Friends : Our Sacred Loving Companions before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Our Sacred Loving Companions:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Truly heartwarming!By Lynette M. SmithWhat an uplifting collection of stories about treasured pets!Written by the pet owners and sometimes from the point of view of the pets themselves (whenever the pet owners wished to remain anonymous), each story told of the very special qualities of the pets and how they enhanced the lives of their owners. Normally, one would expect an anthology to be easy to set down after reading a single story, with the intention of reading another story tomorrow, over a cup of coffee or tea. However, I found myself forgetting to set the book down, and my tea kept getting cold—I was that engrossed. As a result, I usually ended up reading half a dozen stories at a sitting and always looked forward to my next opportunity to read the next batch! Want to feel better about life? Read this book! Note: I received a complimentary copy of this book from the publisher, with no obligation to post a review.

Our Sacred Loving Companions is a heartfelt collection of 64 sacred animal short stories, which include a few poems. Within the pages of this book you'll find inspiration, healing, and laughter. The stories and poems will touch your soul, put a smile on your face, warm your heart, and sometimes bring you to tears. These contributions come from animal lovers, guardians of the animals/owners, therapy and service handlers, veterinarians, and advocates for animals; and in a few, the animals share their own experiences. Most of the animals in the stories were rescued. FUND-RAISER PROJECT - All Proceeds from the sale of Our Sacred Loving Companions will go to two 501(c)3 nonprofit organizations: Sacred Living Sacred Dying Inc, www.SacredLivingSacredDying.org; Doorway Into Light www.DoorwayIntoLight.org, and various animal organizations. ENDORSEMENTS: "With each story, you will learn a new lesson about the important role animals play in enriching our lives."
