a Springer Spaniel owner. Bought the book for a granddaughter and had to read it myself. Looking forward to Nancy Lucas writing more about her non practicing gun dog.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Find!!By USMC1st2goThis was a gift for a little girl who absolutely fell in love with every story.

Scout is an only dog and sometimes lonely, but he does have some dog friends in his Charleston, SC neighborhood.
Whether it's a pair of Boston Terriers that go missing, a difficult ghost dog bully that needs re-homing, tulip bulbs that must be found, or a cursed carriage mule, it's up to Scout (and later, NEW PUPPY Benne Wafer) to lead the rescue missions and solve the mysteries. Along the way, he encounters a terrifying boa constrictor, some unkind wharf rats and a chatty possum that's obsessed with food. Don't forget to pack your sense of humor and some extra palmetto bugs for these adventures that will take you through Charleston's city sewers, King Street shopping and to the City Market! And in this volume, Part Four of The Springer Spaniel Mysteries includes the new adventure, The Curse of the Carriage Mule. PRAISE for The Springer Spaniel Mysteries: "This series... promises to be enticing to comic canine mystery lovers age 8 and up." - The Midwest Book Review "We are proud to announce that A GHOSTLY TAIL by Nancy T. Lucas is a B.R.A.G. Medallion Honoree." - indieBrag "Anyone with a wee one in need of a good read, a heart for hounds, or just a love for a good yarn will enjoy The Missing Tulip Bulbs." - The Charleston Mercury Nancy Lucas lives in Charleston, SC. Scout is her favorite Springer Spaniel and she insists on writing and illustrating silly stories about his capers.
