It's so easy to pick up and put down when you're busy. You find yourself imagining how anyone can pull these off. I'm sure the author will get an ubiquitous response from readers. So, they should all post. When I was younger and worked at my first office job, I completed dares that I could probably add to this book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. One of the Funniest Books I've Ever Read By N. D. Muscutt If you thought about getting this book but haven't because you can't get free shipping, then just order something else with it, or stop being so cheap. This is one of the funniest books I have read in a very long time. I haven't laughed out loud so much in reading a book since "The Ten Speed Commandments" (which, if you add it to your purchase, may get you free shipping). As people take on the dares in this book, I think it will become a ubiquitous little volume, sure to make the work world a better place. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Hilarious!! A GREAT gift for anyone who works in an office! By Alexis Lefkovich I absolutely LOVE this clever book! Especially during these tough economic times when everyone needs a little pick-me-up (especially at work) this book is the perfect antidote for office blues. It is fun, hilarious, and a must-have for anyone who works in an office! The book contains dares of various levels, some of which are more funny than "daring" (like gasping every time the elevator door opens while you're riding to your floor), while others, like flicking the light switch of an anal coworker on and off ten times in a row, are DEFINITELY worthy of their "double dare" label! In that way, there is something for everyone: daredevils and those who are a bit more hesitant to goof around in the office. Even if you aren't brave enough to do the dares yourself, the book is still great fun to look through and share with others! Some of the dares remind me of the shenanigans seen on the TV show The Office, which makes this book even more appealing to me! I absolutely love it and recommend it to everyone!

This outrageously funny book challenges readers to get creative (and bold) at the office with "dares" meant to entertain and provoke co-workers. Depending on which dares you choose to do, you earn points. For example: Run one lap around the office at top speed -1 point Babble incoherently at a fellow employee then ask, "Did you get that, I don't like to repeat myself." -3 points While riding in an elevator, gasp dramatically every time the doors open. -1 point Say to your boss, "I like your style" and shoot him with double-barreled fingers - 3 points. Page yourself over the intercom (do not disguise your voice). -3 points Walk into a very busy person's office and while they watch you with growing irritation, turn the light switch on/off 10 times -5 points. Office life will never be the same for those who take up these etiquette-breaking-dares but it's guaranteed to be a lot more fun!
