Stuart Carapola : The Undertaker's Dumbest Storylines before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Undertaker's Dumbest Storylines:

Another great book by Stuart Carapola. The Undertaker has had such a long career, but I never realized how many dumb storylines he was involved in. Thank you for bringing all of these back. Stu has a great way of reliving wrestling's history. Another recommended book by Mr. Carapola.

Despite being one of the greatest wrestlers in history, the Undertaker has been the focus of some of the most cartoonish, offensive, and downright silly storylines ever seen in professional wrestling. This book looks at the worst of the worst: whether the Undertaker was sacrificing other wrestlers, being investigated by the Naked Gun's Leslie Nielsen, becoming the target of radical terrorist attacks, or killing his own manager by burying him alive in concrete, these are the storylines that would have immediately killed any other wrestler's career, but for the Undertaker, were just another day at the office. This book also contains the following bonus titles: -Wrestling History Revisited: The Book Like WWE Challenge -Wrestlers Who Really Hated Each Other (For Real) -The Third Professional Wrestling Book Of Lists: Worst Ideas Ever Edition
