Victoria Fremont, Larry Daste : The World's Worst Jokes (Dover Children's Activity Books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The World's Worst Jokes (Dover Children's Activity Books):

parties By James L. Holland III originally bought this book to round out a $25 purchase and qualify for free shipping. It turned out to be a great investment. I read through it after receiving it, and 4 or 5 of the worst jokes have stuck with me ever since. They make good icebreakers at parties, and they're hilarious in the "so bad it's funny" sort of way.

When is a car not a car? When it turns into a driveway. Why was the math book so sad? It had too many problems. Why was the lettuce embarrassed? He saw the salad dressing. These and 57 other teeth-gritters fill the pages of this fun-filled little book. Jokesters from eight to eighty will love regaling friends and relatives with these preposterous quips, each accompanied by an equally zany illustration. Sure to tickle a lot of funnybones, these witticisms will generate playful groans from audiences of all ages.
