I love the colors, the brilliant play on words and the laughing at myself as I laugh at all the events/antics. We all need more laughter in our lives and for me it's even better when there's a truthful hook in it.From this wonderful "NOT a Coloring Book" book I have been fully inspired to continue my own artistic journey. Savage has amazingly revealed all my bs. I know I will read this again and again; I am thinking of using it as part of my morning "get in touch with myself" sessions because Savage has thought of things that I didn't realize were hiding inside my artist brain.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. It is wonderful to discover a book that can be read quicklyBy M. McilweeMs. Little uses simple language to portray deep ideas. On the surface it is a comic book with amusing characters, but do not be mislead, the story is real and the thoughts are profound. It made me laugh and then it made me think. It is wonderful to discover a book that can be read quickly, but has images and words that can last a lifetime.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Little Savage is my heroBy equinecareLittle Savage is my hero, I have been in love with Savage for years and so happy to see her book. Amazing original art and Savage can say anything she wants about life in the universe.

This is NOT a Coloring Book Mini Book Edition features Penny Little's cartoon character Little Savage light heartedly poking fun at her "savage" self, the creative process, while lampooning the world of art. This is an arty comic book for the smart ass child in you, your struggling inner artist. Rated PG-28, this version includes excerpts and highlights from the complete three part set which is described as: "a Savage expose on art, life and creativity." This is NOT a Coloring Book is Penny Little's cartoon journal -- the first Little Savage book in her series of "NOT books". The journaling began while she was signed to Warner Brothers as a singer-songwriter and decided to "draw her life in pictures instead of words." It is NOT a graphic novel. The book is a series of reflections and vignettes on art and life, with some practical suggestions thrown in to inspire your creative process. Whether you're an artist, a CEO, a teacher, a student, an activist, a cubicle dweller, retired, a mother, rich, poor, a doctor, lawyer, a redneck philosopher, civilian or in government -- whatever your station in life, your work, your religion, your age -- you are creative, smart, and probably pondering the bigger questions in life, like "Who shall I be today?" "Why is this planet so absurd?" "What's wrong with this frame?" "What dream?!" The Little Savage says she "cannot promise you'll be able to break through your blocks, leap off your ledges, lose 15 pounce in the first week as you watch you're income magically increase -- or that your muse will not file for divorce." but apparently she has spent a lot of time trying to figure that out. And, "everything in this book is true. It really happened."

About the Author Penny Little is the creator and illustrator of Little Savage Books and Cartoons. Besides wanting to "join a circus, be a musician, a physicist or one of Santa's helpers", Penny began a cartoon journal of her life in the early 90's, when her deal with Warner Brother's UK "started going pear shaped." Upon her return to the US, Penny met Nik Green from Geffen band "Blue Murder", and they formed the Away Team. The Away Team was featured in Unconventional Tour 2008, a "mashup of media, music and politics" performing in major cities in the USA. In addition to writing and performing in the Away Team, Penny's cartoon character, Little Savage has run for President since 1996, "but the other cartoons always seem to win. " Penny has also worked with Gang Prevention Through the Arts, Artists in the Schools, Summer Solstice Celebration, Association for Global New Thought, non-profits to produce events, videos and messaging for good causes. She has also facilitated workshops in creative arts in the US, UK and Japan. Penny is a founding member of People to People TV, has produced numerous commercials, shorts and several feature documentaries including the award winning "Electile Dysfunction" and "911 Dust and Deceit".
