Good for Coffee Tables and KidsBy shortywcbThis is a great coffee table read because it's simple and you wont miss out on anything if you don't finish. With that being said, you obviously will finish this book in 5 minutes or less because it's basically a picture book with one sentence underneath each picture. My kids loved it! It's fun to read and the illustrations are cute and well-done. The little sayings underneath each picture are fun and some are even lol worthy. They throw a couple weird "things" (don't want to give it away) in with the dogs and cats which kinda makes the book disconnected at times, even my kids asked why certain creatures were included. But that did not hinder the quality of the book. So, if you want something cute for your desk or coffee table or, better yet, for a late elementary school to middle school kid, this is a hit. Younger kids might not understand some of the jokes, but read along with them and explain and they will enjoy it. Update: There are 2 pages that contain content for grown-ups, I would advise to skip those pages if reading to kids. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Delightful!!! By Mia This is a wonderful little gem, especially for a pet person like myself. The author draws adorable pictures of cats and dogs (and a few other creatures) and lets us know their very humorous inner thoughts. It is a great gift for the people in your life who love their pets. I have given several of these books to friends and everyone gets a good laugh and it starts fun conversation about what they imagine their own pets to be thinking. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A perfect Mother's Day gift By D. Newman I got this to give my mother for Mother for Mother's Day. I managed to avoid reading it before giving it to her, but it was a near thing. She loved it, and I very much liked what I saw of it. The illustrations are beautiful, the captions range from sweet to biting, and the quality of the paper and binding were excellent. It was a fun gift, and I was glad I gave it to her (although a little sad I wasn't keeping it).

Ever wonder what your dachshund, bulldog, great dane, or tabby cat are really thinking? Wonder no more, because artist and comedian Christopher Rozzi has channeled the innermost thoughts of canines and felines (along with the occasional rabbit or robot) and painted their portraits with great affection and humor. Garnering attention and raves from Flavorwire, Laughing Squid, Fab.com, and elsewhere, Tiny Confessions has attracted a growing fan base among pet lovers, art lovers, and anyone with a good sense of humor. In this endearing and very funny collection of color portraits, candid pets will reveal insights including: "What you see as dancing is just me desperately scrambling to earn ham." "That mess I made is my way of thanking you for my awesome name." "I forgot where I buried that thing that you loved."

"Christopher Rozzi's Tiny Confessions is sort of like Post Secret for monsters, pets, and pop culture icons." —Neatorama "In his spot-on illustrations revealing the inner musings and reflections of our canine pals, Rozzi offers a very funny proposal of what's going on behind that inscrutable, fuzzy visage—and in the process captures something very true and revealing of our relationships with our dogs.... We confess: We're charmed." —Modern Dog Magazine "Delightful.... Seriously, snap yours up before we buy him out." —Flavorwire "Some are more hilarious... some are more sweet.... But they're all really clever." —Linda Holmes, NPR's Monkey See blog About the Author Christopher Rozzi is an artist, writer, and comedian living in New York City.
