About the Author Andrew Buller is a writer and illustrator of numerous children's books. He lives in England, in the beautiful Kent countryside near Canterbury. His series "The Rhymers" follows the lives of 26 loveable alphabet characters who live on Rhyme Island. The first of these books, Vroom and Zoom, was published in January 2015, with the remainder of the series published throughout 2015 and the 13-book series finishing with Ace and Bass. Each of The Rhymers' stories are available as "Colour Me Rhymers" books too where you can add your own colour to the story. There are also Puzzling Rhymers puzzle books to accompany many of the titles. Stories for The Rising Rhymers, our same 26 characters as little letters, are being published too. There are many more books, including the adventures of Mubble Pup, Rhyme Island's loveable dizzy-leg-sick dog. Books to help children learn their alphabet, numbers, colours and shapes are also available. Go to www.meetherhymers.com to find out so much more. Andrew has never grown up which is the best reason why writing and drawing for children is his dream job!
